FY 2025 Part A Areas of Focus

Unspent Funds & Underspensing Contracts

- Both HAB, HCPH and the RWPC are concerned about recent underspending and the copious amount of carryover funds in previous fiscal years
- Unspent funds will continue to be an area of focus for FY25
- Covid-19-related Waivers for Unobligated Balances exceeding 5% of the EMA's remain unavailable in FY25.
- RWGA will again vigorously monitor FY25 contracts and will shift funds from underspending contracts quickly
- Subrecipients will be required to submit a detailed expenditure forecast per contract in November outlining current and expected expenditures for the entire fiscal year.

HIV and Aging

- BCM HIV & Aging Project
 - Provides technical assistance and training to providers to address the healthcare and psychosocial needs of people aging with HIV in the RWHAP.
 - Conduct needs assessment among case managers/social workers, prescribing providers, and clients to assess baseline knowledge, barriers and understanding of needs and resources for older clients with HIV.
 - Host six-session ECHO program to reinforce concepts and knowledge, inform new considerations, and update on best practices of evidence driven care.
- Geriatric Medical Case Management
 - $400,899 total in funding/$80,180 per Urban Pcare subrecipient
 - Provides enhanced medical case management services to clients, ages 50 and older

RFP Expected in 2025

- The Ryan White Part A or MAI services required to be competed for in FY25 are:
 - Emergency Financial Assistance-Other
 - Substance Use Outpatient Care
- All other current Part A, MAI, and EHE contracts with community-based non-profit entities are eligible for renewal
